April 4-6pm

Macbeth

Shea Theater, 71 Avenue A, $25

Tickets are $25 and can be purchased at <https://sheatheater.org>

The Scottish Play, as it's known for superstitious reasons, is under the direction of Nia Lynn, voice and text for the Royal Shakespeare Company, Stratford-upon-Avon, UK. Macbeth plunges the audience into Shakespeare's most psychologically complex tragedy. Passionate love transforms into a conspiratorial power-grabbing nightmare, and the line between reality and imagination dissolves. This talented cast of local and regional actors invite you to step into Macbeth's twisted psyche, where prophecy and paranoia get mixed up in the Weird Sisters' cauldron. Featured performers include Parker Cross as Macbeth, Linda Tardif as Lady Macbeth, E.W. Sheets as Duncan, Sam Pery as Macduff, Lori Holmes Clark as Lady Macduff, and Kory Turner as Banquo. Friday and Saturday performances are at 7:30pm. Sunday performances are at 2pm. This production of Macbeth is made possible by Greenfield Cooperative Bank with support from The Shea Theater, RiverCulture, Eggtooth Productions, the Community Foundation of Western MA, and the MCC local cultural councils of Amherst, Bernardston, Buckland, Charlemont-Hawley, Conway, Gill, Leyden, Montague, New Salem, Orange, Rowe and Warwick.
